By Dr. David Yonggi Cho

In his book New Korea Vision: Praying for Unity, Dr. David Yonggi Cho explores the power of prayer in bringing about reconciliation and unity in Korea. Cho, who is the founder of the world's largest megachurch, the Yoido Full Gospel Church in Seoul, believes that prayer is a powerful force for change that can transcend political and cultural divides.

In the book, Cho shares his own personal experiences of praying for unity in Korea. He describes how he prayed for the reunification of North and South Korea, and for the reconciliation of the two Koreas with Japan. He also shares how he prayed for the healing of the wounds of the Korean War, and for the forgiveness of the perpetrators of atrocities committed during that war.

Cho's book is a powerful call to prayer for unity in Korea. He believes that prayer is the key to unlocking the potential of Korea to become a beacon of hope and reconciliation for the world.
