The Maccabees' story begins in the second century BC, when the Jewish people were under the rule of the Seleucid Empire. The Seleucids were a Hellenistic dynasty that sought to impose their culture and religion on the Jews. This led to a series of oppressive measures, including the banning of Jewish religious practices and the desecration of the Temple in Jerusalem.

The Maccabees, led by Judas Maccabeus, refused to submit to the Seleucids' tyranny. They launched a revolt that quickly spread throughout Judea. The Maccabees were vastly outnumbered and outgunned, but they fought with unwavering courage and determination. They won a series of stunning victories, culminating in the recapture of Jerusalem and the rededication of the Temple.

The Maccabees' victory was a major turning point in Jewish history. It marked the beginning of a new era of independence and self-determination. The Maccabees' story is an inspiration to all who fight for freedom and justice.
