Sphere energy healing has been practiced for centuries by various cultures around the world. The ancient Egyptians, Greeks, and Romans all used spheres in their healing practices. In recent years, sphere energy healing has gained popularity as a complementary and alternative medicine modality.

The Principles of Sphere Energy Healing

Sphere energy healing is based on the principle that the human body is an energy field. This energy field is made up of seven major chakras, or energy centers. When the chakras are balanced and flowing freely, the body is in a state of health and well-being. However, when the chakras are blocked or out of balance, it can lead to physical, emotional, and spiritual problems.

Sphere energy healers use spheres to clear energy blockages and restore balance to the chakras. This can promote healing on all levels of being, from the physical to the emotional to the spiritual.
