

The JDC at 100: A Century of Humanitarianism

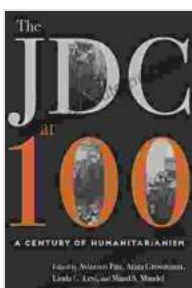

The Joint Distribution Committee (JDC) is the world's leading Jewish humanitarian organization. For 100 years, the JDC has provided vital aid and assistance to Jewish communities in need around the world.

The JDC was founded in 1914 in response to the outbreak of World War I. The war had caused widespread devastation and suffering, and the JDC was established to provide relief to Jewish communities in war-torn Europe. In the years that followed, the JDC continued to provide aid to Jewish communities in need, including during the Holocaust and the Cold War.

After the fall of the Soviet Union in 1991, the JDC expanded its work to include providing aid to Jewish communities in the former Soviet Union. The JDC has also been active in providing assistance to Jewish communities in other parts of the world, including in Africa, Asia, and Latin America.
