

Unveiling the Ancient Wisdom of Dzogchen: The Three Statements of Garab Dorje, First Dzogchen Master

1. The Nature of Mind Is Primordial Awareness

The nature of the mind is naturally aware, Like the sun shining in the sky. It is not born, nor does it cease; It has no center, nor any circumference.

2. Everything Is Included in Primordial Awareness

Phenomena are like the rays of the sun, Appearing in the expanse of awareness. They are not separate from awareness, Like waves are not separate from the ocean.

3. The Path to Liberation Is Direct Recognition

Recognize the mind's nature and you are liberated, Like the sun shining in the sky. There is no need to seek or strive, For the mind's nature is already perfect.

- Deepen Understanding of Non-Duality: The Three Statements provide a clear and concise exposition of the non-dual nature of reality, helping us to transcend the illusion of separation between subject and object.
